Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can give his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call on THE LEXER, Telephone 35, and send it in.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop a note to this effect.

Mrs. Henry Wain is home from a visit to relatives at Corbin.

Mrs. Jennie Bell of Ashland is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Outten.

MILKERS' LAMENT.
I just don't like you half as well
Now as I did before,
Because you've got on trousers and
You ain't a girl no more!
You used to have long hair that hung
Down to your shoulders then,
But now they're gone, an' oh, I wish
You was a girl again.
You've got some pockets and you're just
As proud as you can be,
And yesterday you ruined away
And wouldn't play with me!
I saw you with those naughty boys
That laughed at you before,
But now they play with you because
You ain't a girl no more.
You used to think to visit me
When you had dresses on,
And, oh, how nice you used to be
Before your trousers was gone!
We used to play with dolls, and
You looked so pretty then,
I wish they'd hide your trousers, so
You'd be a girl again!

Not Quite Finished!

But have advanced far enough in our annual taking amount of stock to see that we have much to be thankful for to our friends and the public at large, and now enter into 1899 business with strong hopes of making it one of the most successful business years we ever had. Our business policy will be adhered to to the letter. Our motto is—

No Merchandise
Top Good For Our Customers.

The manufacturers who make the best Clothing, the manufacturers that make the best Shoes on earth, the manufacturers that make the best of Furnishing Goods, Hats, etc., are the people we buy from only, and that is the reason you do not find elsewhere the class of goods you buy of us. That our prices are right is proven by the quantities we buy and sell.

Our Spring
Purchases!

(and they will surprise you) will soon come in. Some are in now. We will need all the room we can possibly secure. We will offer great inducements to sell what little we carry over in heavy weights. To be sure our sizes are somewhat broken, but if we can fit you in goods you will be nicely fitted in price. Come in and let us show you what we can do for you.

STRIKE THE BLOW

Agnello Called To Have Prepared a Cable Message to Aguinaldo.

ADM. DEWEY AND GEN. OTIS WARNED.

The Treasonable Message Was Intercepted and the Attention of the Administration Called To It.

Agnello says it is a forgery—He declares that no such telegram was sent by him—He gives the Treaty With the Red Hat.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—When Agnello learned that the senate had set a day for voting on the ratification of the peace treaty he prepared a dispatch to the Philippine junta at Hong Kong, conveying the news, and is reported to have added the suggestion that if Aguinaldo was to be forcibly content American control be should be maintained at once, as with the treaty ratified and further reinforcements the Americans would be in a better position to maintain order. This dispatch, it is said, was intercepted and brought to the attention of the president and Secretaries Alger and Long.

Neither secretary will discuss the accuracy of the statements, but both are said to have forwarded instructions to their representatives at Manila, Gen. Otis and Adm. Dewey—to warn them that Agnello's suggestions, which must be carried from Hong Kong to the Philippines, are such as the American forces are in control at Manila and of the cable and are exercising a censorship.

There is no intention on the part of the administration, as far as can be learned, to disturb Agnello or his associates, but their arrest or deportation would promptly follow the declaration of war against the United States by Aguinaldo and his associates. Agnello, the representative of Aguinaldo, authorized the following statement Friday concerning a published report that the government had intercepted dispatches from Hong Kong to which he advised that the Philippine junta would have to fight for their independence and that now was the time to act.

"The statement is absolutely false, and is calculated to excite feeling and animosity in this country and to prejudice the Philippine cause. No such telegram has ever been sent by me, and for that reason no such telegram could have been intercepted. The falsity of the statement is shown by the fact that I have called my government to continue the same friendship which was borne to me in the field against Spain. The Philippine people have no wish and no purpose to fight against Americans unless they are driven to it. Their only desire is to strengthen the bonds now existing."

There is great secrecy in the department in regard to the Agnello cablegram question, the officials of the state department saying that no administration does not intend to notice Agnello in any way and answer his notes. The Filipinos at the Arlington, however, are in a very restless state. Dr. Lozano, who headed the Philippine delegation just arrived, is seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism and is under the care of a trained nurse. His physician has forbidden him to transact any business, and he has not been able to advise or consult with his colleagues. Agnello, however, has had frequent consultations with the American lawyers who are advising him, together with several Spanish-Americans now in the city and is evidently expecting some developments at Manila. He has had consultations with the opposition senators and has learned from them that the ratification of the treaty now seems certain, and evidently from his conferences with these senators he has made up his mind that Aguinaldo must act now.

Turbulent Scene in the Austrian Reichstag.

VIENNA, Jan. 28.—In the lower house of the Austrian reichstag Friday a disturbance arising out of racial differences led to a hand-to-hand fight between deputies. The ushers finally succeeded in separating the combatants, but the sitting came to a close amid a scene of great turbulence.

Pro-American Exposition.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 28.—Subscriptions to the stock of the Pan-American exposition reached the million dollar mark Friday afternoon, over $300,000 having been received within the past 48 hours. It is now proposed to increase the capital stock of the company from $1,000,000 to $3,000,000.

Confirmed by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The senate Friday confirmed the following nominations: Postmaster Tennessee—J. Kenny, Baltimore; H. C. Neely, Greenfield; N. L. Scooby, New York; J. A. M. Hallingford, Upland; W. H. Burris, Milford; F. S. Miller, Bremen.

Kissed the Prophetess Mouth.

CONSTATINOPLE, Jan. 28.—Sultan Abdul Hamid made his annual visit to Stamboul by water Friday to kiss the mouth of the prophetess. Five of the usual elaborate ceremonies were observed.

GEN. GEO. S. GREENE DEAD.

Unhappily Commanded in the Civil War, Passed Away at His Home in Maryland, N. J., at 10:45 Morning.

New York, Jan. 28.—Gen. George S. Greene died of old age at Morris town, N. J., at 10:45 Saturday morning. He leaves three sons, Gen. Francis V. Greene, U. S. Army, and Maj. Charles T. Greene, U. S. A. retired. He was graduated at the United States Military academy at West Point in 1853.

He served in various positions as an instructor at West Point until 1864, when he left the army and became a civil engineer, building many railroads. He entered the army in 1862 as colonel of the 6th New York regiment and was appointed brigadier general of volunteers April 28, 1863. He participated in the battle of Gettysburg, and was dangerously wounded in the battle near Chattanooga, when he received Sherman's army in North Carolina and participated in the engagements preceding Johnston's surrender.

He was breveted major general of volunteers March 13, 1865, and retired from the army in 1865.

HAVANA CUSTOMS RECEIPTS.

Under a Decreased Tariff Rate They Are Considerably More Than Collected Under the Old Rate and Regime.

HAVANA, Jan. 28.—The customs receipts Friday amounted to $49,000. The receipts Thursday were $46,000. The gross receipts for January, including Friday are $724,000, and Collector Bliss expects to reach $800,000 with the end of the month.

This would be at the rate of $10,000 a year more than Spain collected annually during the last 13 years of her regime, under a tariff 60 per cent. less. These figures give an idea of the extent of Spanish official peculation.

HOUSE NIGHT SESSION.

Fifty-Nine Private Pension Bills Were Passed—One of the Beneficiaries Is Over 100 Years Old.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—After 59 private pension bills had been passed Friday night Mr. Ray (rep., N. Y.) made the point that no quorum to prevent final action on a bill to pension Leila Tyler Sample, a daughter of ex-President Tyler at the rate of $50 per month. The senate passed a bill to pension her at the rate of $50. The house was for $30, but when the house Friday night restored it to $50 against the committee recommendation, Mr. Ray prevented final action by raising the point of no quorum. The beneficiary of one of the bills passed Friday night was over 100 years old.

New Mexican Ambassador.

MEXICO, Jan. 28.—President Diaz Friday appointed Manuel Aspiras, assistant secretary of foreign relations, to be ambassador to the United States. The appointment is well met, since Aspiras has been in constant touch with the late ambassador, Romero, and knows all the details of Mexico's relations with the United States.

Not Death by Chieftain.

PENK YAN, N. Y., Jan. 28.—The dead body of Miss M. T. Ayres, prominent in social circles, was found in a trunk at her home on Liberty street. She was in night attire in a slumping position, bent down in a large packing trunk. Under the face was found an eight-ounce bottle filled with chloroform.

Five Lives Lost.

SOUTH NORWICH, Ct., Jan. 28.—The steam canal boat C. A. Austin, of New York, ran on the rocks off Norwalk Friday and sank. The consort David B. Fisk accompanied her. Five of the 20 on board were killed. The vessel lost its lives.

COURT'S FINDINGS

Commissioner General Eagan Dismissed From the United States Service.

NO RECOMMENDATION FOR CLEMENCY.

The Verdict Was Reached Within 45 Minutes After the Court-Martial Trial Ended.

The President C. E. Eagan Clemency Is Urged That He Be Assigned to Garrison Duty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The case of Commissioner General Chas. P. Eagan, charged with conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and with conduct tending to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, is now in the hands of the court-martial appointed to try him. Friday the taking of testimony was closed and arguments of counsel submitted. The trial lasted three days and consumed less than eight hours of actual sitting.

A secret behind-closed doors at an hour or so sufficed for the court to reach a conclusion and embody it in a report. What the verdict was is altogether a matter of speculation and, officially, at least, is not to be made public by the trial board, military regulations requiring that its finding shall go through prescribed channels and be kept secret until action be had and promulgated by the proper reviewing authorities.

The attendance at the court-martial was much larger Friday than at any other time since the trial began and among the spectators was a score of more ladies. Several of them were friends of Gen. Eagan's daughter, who was called as a witness, while others were attracted by curiosity. The testimony at the closing session of the court was directed largely to establishing the fact that the general had lost his mental balance as a result of the charges made against him by Gen. Miles.

His daughter and her husband told of the general's changed condition and intimated that they had great fears for his life. He might any time kill his accuser, Mr. McKee, a life-long friend, stated that at that time he believed him actually insane. The facts in this connection were brought out strongly by Mr. Worthington. In his efforts to show that Gen. Eagan at times was wholly irresponsible.

A dramatic incident of the trial Friday was the testimony of the general's daughter, in which she described her father's appearance on the day he first read Gen. Miles' statement. Standing in the door of his house at the evening supper containing the evidence in his hand, he had exclaimed wildly: "I have been crucified by Gen. Miles."

Throughout the three days of the trial the members of the court sat in their places and attentively listened to every word of the testimony. Only on two or three occasions did they ask the witnesses any questions, and then an answer of yes, or no, or sir, sufficed. Where their sympathies were, or what was passing in their minds, was not disclosed by even the slightest change of expression.

Immediately upon the case being closed the room was ordered cleared and the court went into executive session to deliberate upon their findings. Dismissal from the military service of the United States without any recommendation for clemency is the verdict passed by the court-martial upon Commissioner General Eagan for his recent virulent attack upon Maj. Gen. Miles. The verdict was reached within 45 minutes after the trial was ended Friday.

Notwithstanding the nature of the charges against him, the president can exercise clemency if he so desires and Gen. Eagan's friends will urge that his punishment be confined to relieving him from the duties of commissary general of subsistence and to a detail to garrison duty.

FATAL HOTEL FIRE.

Two Farmers Killed by Death at Hillsboro, Tex., and Another Great Massacre—Property Lost Small.

Waco, Tex., Jan. 28.—Ross Leary and Andrew Griswold, farmers from Hill county, were burned to death in the Commercial hotel at Hillsboro, 30 miles north of Waco Friday morning, and John McClure, another guest, is missing and his body is supposed to be in the ruins. At 3 o'clock Friday morning the building was discovered in flames and fanned by a fierce wind was quickly consumed.

When search was made the charred trunk of Griswold's body and a few bones supposed to be those of Leary were all that remained. No signs of McClure's body could be found. The property loss was small.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC.

Nearly Two Hundred Cases in Northern County, Mass., Since August.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 27.—Dr. H. H. Harbison, inspector of the state board of health, returned from Nubucum county, Friday, where he has been investigating a reported smallpox epidemic. In his report to the board Dr. Harbison says that there have been nearly 300 cases of the disease in that county at a point about 15 miles from Macon, since last August. The board was unaware of the existence of the disease till one week ago. One physician treated 150 cases before he discovered the nature of the affliction. Dr. Harbison says that all the cases have been mild, with a phenomenally low death rate.

WINE OF CARDUI

FOR ALL WOMEN
Non-terms of all the pains and aches from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

WINE OF CARDUI
Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with deranged and irregular periods, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefited by it.

For advice cases, giving special directions, etc., write to the proprietors, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Toledo, Ohio, says: "My sister suffered from various troubles, but she was cured by the use of Wine of Cardui. It is a most reliable medicine for all women suffering from the change of life."
